To His Majesty

CANADA AND THE REST OF THE BRI tish Empire are celebrating the birthday of King George the Sixth today. Or, per haps, "celebrating" is a misnomer for a day which dawned on an empire engaged in a titanic life-and-death struggle against ruth ess and relentless foes, in contrast with the day-only a short year ago-when Canada celebrated with a fervor and enthusiasm stirred to the highest expression by the never-to-be-forgotten visit of Their Majesties

While the exigencies of war have robbe the official observance of the occasion of much of its customary social and other pic turesque features, however, Canadians, together with all other loyal citizens of the British Commonwealth of Nations, have greeted this day with a special significanceby rededicating themselves to the service of their King and Country. And such service connotes courage, earnestness of thought, the substitution of the constructive for the destructive in word and gesture, stick-to-itiveness, and the determination to carry or the task until the enemies of human decency and all that makes, life worth living are

No finer birthday gift than this could be made to King George the Sixth, whose example, throughout the dark and trying days through which the Empire and its brave Allies are passing, represents loyalty and devoted service at its apogee. And the Times joins all Canada in the prayerful paraphrase of the time-honored wish: "May God grant you many happy and peaceful returns of the day."

At the Golden Horn

TURKEY'S HESITATION TO MAKE war on Italy immediately is not difficult to understand. She must look to her strategic and geographical position. Particuassured by the Soviet government that 20 ernment; Winnipeg Tribune, June 5 and government's mutual-assistance pacts with Great Britain and France, Turkey is exempted from any obligation to fight her powerful northern neighbor. In the event of Greece being attacked by Italy or Germany, or both, however, Turkey's political and territorial integrity necessarily would be immediately threatened by the aggressors by Cermany actuated by her original "Drang nach Osten" dream, and by Italy in prosecution of her "Mare Nostrum" ambition in the Mediterranean. Under such circumstances the gravity of the problem that would confront the Ankara government can be better imagined than described

While Italy is cautiously feeling her way in her first war against Great Britain, probably realizing even in this short time that the various units of the Royal Air Force will give her important African and other bases little rest, the British government is naturally anxious that Turkey's position shall be clarified with as little delay as possible. Sev eral statements from official quarters in Ankara have conveyed the assurance that Turkish undertakings will be faithfully observed. Nor does there appear to be any grave doubt on this score. tality, which German agents in recent years have tried to revive, has evidently given way before the progressive policies under which Kemal Attaturk completely rejuvenated the country and infused a new spirit into the hearts of the people. And it is not likely that the men now in control at Ankara will be fooled by Mussolini's promises to prevent the spread of the conflict into the Balkans. In this regard, incidentally, some observations of Turkish Deputy Hussein Djahid Yaltchin, in the Istanbul newspaper Yeni Sabah, are pertinent. He says:

"The assurances mixed with veiled threats given by Italy to certain states which might side with the Allies, and given in the belie! the states in question would abandon Britain and France, are valueless. It is superfluous to state that both Germany and Italy have so often misused assurances that it no longer is possible to put any faith in them. . . . On the contrary, they convey the impression of a new trap of chicanery. . . . The example of Albania is striking evidence—to say nothing of the example already given by Hitler."

Another Istanbul newspaper, Aksham, emphasizes all that Deputy Yaltchin has written when it says that Turkey has "before our eyes the ruins of countries which have fallen for such assurances." Surrounding the polemical exchange, of course, is the early prospect of the war reaching to the eastern end of the Mediterranean, an evenfuality which would involve Turkey immediately, irrespective of Russia's action. It may well be, moreover, that what appears to be a new and intensive Turkish press aternment has given the authorities at Ankara the "green light." And how could Turkey's be considered inimical to the interests of the Soviet Union? Nazi Germany's Franz von Papen, incidentally, has been busy at Ankara for weeks—trying to make up for a previous Failure to Impress Turkish statesmen with his country's ambitions. Toward the Golden Horn, therefore, considerable attention now is directed.

The same of the Allies of the Allies been busy at Ankara for every man who wants to fight for the things Canada and the British Empire stand for, every man who desires to fight against the things Hitler and Mussolini stand for, can, if he is physically able, take his place in the enormous cost of Empire defence. To start the movement feed him pap, but to liberate him. And mark my words: If we do not do so there will be, one of these days, an explosion. For the things Canada and the British Empire stand corners forever. And the old saw is none the like or larger amount. All corners forever. And the old saw is none the like or larger amount. All corners forever. And the old saw is none the like or larger amount. All corners forever, and the old saw is none the like or larger amount. All corners forever, and the old saw is none the like or larger amount. All corners forever. And the old saw is none the like or larger amount. All corners forever amount of the enormous cost of Empire defence. To start the movement feed him pap, but to liberate him. And mark my words: If we do not do so there will be, one of these days, an explosion. For the hings Canada and the British Empire stand on the like of th entrance into the war on the side of the Allies

The S.E.P. Again

OUD APPLAUSE FOR RT. HON. ARthur Meighen who let himself go in the Senate in a castigation of the Saturday Evening Post for its "lies" about Great Britain and France. That widely-read weekly appears to exude glee when an issue contains articles which imply anything that might put the Allies and their cause in a doubtful light. And if George Horace Lorimer-its editor for nearly 30 years—can see its editorial page from the "other side" he must be hanging his head. True, that talented and highlyrespected journalist was a Republican, and fought valiantly for the political philosophy which he believed, but he was also a distinguished American who could combine the elegant phrase with honest conviction. His eaning was always clear; the weapons he umbered in his verbal arsenal did not in-

Mr. Meighen, like the rest of us, however, able to place the unfriendly outpourings of the Saturday Evening Post-which contains so much good material-side by side with the strikingly friendly points of view great mass of the American people as reflected in the editorial and correspondence olumns of such influential newspapers as the New York Times, the New York Herald-Tribune, and a host of others throughout the Republic. And we also know that the Roose veltian view of the responsibilities and obli gations now facing the United States, the ew conception of her role in this realistic world will be prevailing long after the directors of the present editorial policy of the Saturday Evening Post have run out of spleen.

Not Supported by Fact

IT HAS BEEN INTIMATED ON MANY occasions recently by the morning paper that the press of Canada is being virtually saturated by a "rising tide" of protests against what it calls with variations the half-hearted war effort of the King govern ment. We have taken the trouble to con sult 10 of the most important Canadian dailies which are on file on our exchange table, taking representative issues of last week into the scope of our search, to discover the validity or otherwise of our contemporary's inference.

Beginning with the Vancouver Daily Province-with a circulation of 90,000-for last Saturday, we find that in a page filled by more than two dozen letters only one is in any way critical and is from an anony mous correspondent. Edmonton Journal for larly, of course, is it necessary that she be June 6 and 7 has none critical of the govnone critical; Winnipeg Free Press, June 6 shall not be disturbed. June 4 and 5, none critical.

We suggest to our morning contemporary that the continued repetition of its political complaint against the Canadian government is not based on any "rising tide" of criticism as reflected by hundreds of citizens of this Dominion writing to the newspapers. We suggest, too, that thes: Conservative journals which have been critical have at least shown an inclination to consult facts as re-They are now demonstrating a Canadianism, which finds more room for constructive co operation and helpful enlightenment than for daily repetition of arguments unsupported by actualities or simple logic.

To the Editor: Will you kindly allow me space in your valuable olumns to express my thanks to the citizens of Victoria, for the splendid reception given the Vic who complimented the young handsmen upon their smart ap pearance and good playing, con sidering the short time that has elapsed since the inauguration of the band eight months ago.

Arrangements for the band to play in the city next Saturday afternoon have been completed The band will also take part in next Sunday evening, June 16, in the Crystal Garden. The band committee is deeply thankful for the kind offer of Sergeant-Major services as drill and marching in has been accepted and the lads enjoy the training offered. The ladies of the band com mittee are holding a rummage Saturday, 9 a.m., at Pandora Avenue, in aid of the uniform expenses. Any articles or donations to this work will be gladly accepted at the P. E. ### Catholic Women Do Much Red Cross Work

The June meeting of the Victoria Subdivision of the C.W.L. of Canada was held in the Parish Hall, View Street, with Mrs. W. C. McManus, president, in the chair. A letter was read from the Junior Chamber of Commerce and the nembers assembled heartily endorsed co-operation in making this week a strawberry festival for aanich fruit.

ade to the Victoria branch of the Red Cross. The list of work com-pleted was read by Mrs. Blair Reid, convener of the C.W.L. unit, and showed much effort and activity on the part of members. The donation of $5 made for ma-terials for refugees' clothing was approved by the meeting, and al-ready some blankets had been donated to the Red Cross for war areas. An announcement was given of the garden party to be held at Government House on July 31. Mrs. Ebbs-Canavan, convener, announced that the annual history prizes would be 3e-lected for St. Leuis College, St. Ann's Academy and the kinder-garten school. Four St. Louis College boys had passed their recently for boy scout cer

Ethiopia Hopes to Drive Out Italians and Re-establish Itself

Haile Selassie, here reading a newspaper in English exile, lost his title as emperor of Ethiopia to King Victor Emmanuel III of Italy, after a five-months' military campaign had brought the African kingdom into the Italian empire.

Untrained and badly armed, natives of Ethiopia felt the full fury of Mussolini's war machine when Il Duce set out to snatch the free state as the first colony in a Fascist empire. The conquest outraged world opinion as the aggressors resorted to poison was a great drain on Italy's resources.

bombed natives in Ethiopia and later wrote about the experience as "excellent sport." Bombs, he said, made crowds "open up like a flower." Now, however, this vulture, son of a father who has gained notoriety at sticking knives in the back of his neighbors, must face men who can fly and fight. The British pilots in Africa are led by Air Commodore Raymond Collishaw, native son of Nanaimo, who is known as the greatest air battler of all time. He is credited with 300 machines.

Rapidly nearing completion and scheduled for dedication soon is the world's largest pontoon bridge at Seattle, Wash. Ships will pass through the 200-foot opening of the span, shown above, slowing the flow of traffic for only a short time. The span is 6,661 feet long.

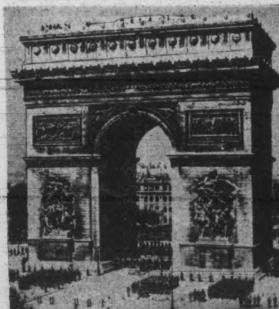

Anne Morgan, sister of J. P. Morgan, international financier, Is shown here with two of her aides, volunteers of the American friends of France. This group of gallant women has been in the thick of the blitzkrieg since the morning the Germans invaded the Low Countries. Under continuous bombardment the Friends of France evacuated thousands of refugees from Belgian and French villages, spending sleepless nights and eatless days. Many of their ambulances were bombed and their drivers are missing, but Miss Morgan and her aides still carry on. At left here is Eva Drexel Dahlgren of Philadelphia; at right, Rose Dolan, also of Philadelphia.

Latest addition to the U.S. battle fleet is the Curtiss S.B.C-4, divember, for service aboard aircraft carriers. It is powered ith a 1,000-hp. Wright "cyclone" engine. United States plants are working night and day to rush these planes to aid the Allies.

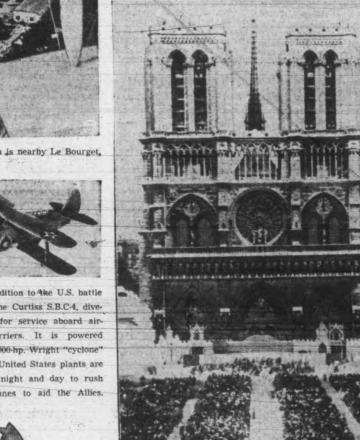

Millions of enthralled tourists from all parts of the world have marvelled at the beauty of the French capital. Lower, is the famous Arch of Triumph. Notre Dame Cathedral, top, is one of the many churches and cathedrals in Paris. The city has a peacetime population of nearly 3,000,000, but many of them have gone south. Paris has been declared an "open city" by the French government. The Eiffel Tower is pictured
